

Moisturising cosmetics

Skin-deep

Our moisturising cosmetics are not just simple skin care. They are much more - you do your skin a favour. Day and night - protect and repair your epidermis for a perfect glow!

Normal skin ?

A normal skin is soft, looks matt and even. Nonetheless its natural balance should be protected daily.

Dry skin ??

A dry skin has a lack of radiance. It feels tight and becomes easily dehydrated.

DAY CREAM NORMAL SKIN

Prélude à l'aurore®

Finish off your daily skincare with the lightness of the Day Cream, "Prélude à l'Aurore" - for normal skin.

With a gentle flower-scent and a remarkably soft texture, the day cream releases all its benefits to normal skins. It combines repairing ingredients (Shea butter, Beeswax and Mango butter) with the protective and preservative properties of Propolis. Protected from daily stress, the skin regains suppleness and freshness.

Main ingredients: BLOSSOM ORANGE FLORAL WATER, BEESWAX, MANGO AND SHEA BUTTER, PROPOLIS, BUDDLEIA DAVIDII (BUTTERFLY BUSH)

50 ml pump-bottle - for normal skin types

For whom ?

For those looking for a cream to protect their skin during the day and which is adapted to their skin type.

How ?

Apply mornings, after the serum application, on the face from nose to cheeks, by gently brushing upward.

"This is THE surprise: my skin usually cannot stand any cream because it is too sensitive. It is real heaven: this cream penetrates well and does not leave any greasy film. My skin has never found this before! Thank you!" A client said about the Prélude à l'aurore Day Cream

"Efficiency from the first applications; easy to spread on the face, dry skin becomes a distant memory" A client said about the Day Cream for dry skin
